Jagemann and Binversie Join Kohler Credit Union

Kohler Credit Union announces the hiring of Jon Jagemann as mortgage loan originator and Tom Binversie has joined the MEMBERS Financial Services team as the registered representative at the credit union's Financial Center.

Jagemann recently moved to the area from California where he gained experience in several different areas of the real estate industry; including work as a real estate agent, loan officer and most recently as a mortgage broker. Jagemann will be based out of the Taylor Drive Branch.

Binversie joins MEMBERS Financial Services with over six years experience in the insurance and investment industry; most recently as a financial representative with Northwestern Mutual. He holds a Bachelors Degree in Business from Lakeland College, with a double major in Business Administration and International Business. As a registered representative through MEMBERS Financial Services, Binversie will work with Kohler Credit Union members to create insurance and investment plans that fit their needs.
